DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-8, 11-14, 16-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Takashi et al. (JP 08-264195, translation).

Takashi et al. teaches on page 2, [0009-0010], that the invention prints two electrodes from which catalyst ability is different to partial oxidation reaction of hydrocarbon on the same surface of an electrolyte sheet. Serialization of a fuel cell is possible by printing palladium, platinum and nickel or a rhodium electrode and a gold electrode by vacuum deposition on the same surface of a solid electrolyte sheet and connecting between each cell by interconnector. Takashi et al. teaches in Figure 1 and page 4, a non-diaphragm solid electrolyte fuel cell comprising a solid electrolyte substrate 1 and a plurality of electrodes comprising an electrode with catalyst ability (anode) (2) and an electrode without catalyst ability (cathode) (3) in which both electrodes (2) and (3) are disposed on the same side of the solid electrolyte substrate (1) with a predetermined space and there is an interconnector with connects between cells (4).

Claim Objections

3. Claims 8-9, 11, 16 are objected to because of the following informalities:
“Claim1” should instead be “Claim 1”. Appropriate correction is required.
4. Claims 19-20 are objected to because of the following informalities: “Claim13” should instead be “Claim 13”. Appropriate correction is required.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 9-10, 15, 20 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
